29 The defendant Hisham Mushasha and the government stipulate that this Court 30 should enter an order modifying the conditions of Mr. Mushasha's probation to allow for 31 domestic and international travel, with prior notice to, and approval from, his supervising
32 probation officer. Currently, Mr. Mushasha's travel is restricted to the Northern District 33 of California.

1 On February 23, 2009, this Court sentenced Mr. Mushasha to 5 years probation.
2 As a condition of probation, he was required to reside at the halfway house for one year, 3 which he did without incident. His travel was also restricted to the Northern District of 4 California, which has continued since his release from the halfway house.

5 Mr. Mushasha serves at the Chief Financial Officer of BCCI Construction, a major 6 construction company and commercial general contractor. As part of his job, the 7 company requests that he travel from time-to-time domestically, outside of the Northern 8 District of California. Mr. Mushasha, who also has multiple citizenships, also has family 9 members living outside of the United States. Some of his children live in England. His 10 father is also buried outside the United States. Mr. Mushasha would like to travel to see 11 his children and other family members and to his father's grave site.

12 Probation Officer Daniel Zurita is aware of this request and does not object.
